

Asia Pulse

OCT 27, 2009

BRIEFING: ASIA INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

MANILA - Software firm NetSuite Inc. is set to hire 300 more employees as it doubles its Philippine operations to meet rising demand for its product.

Company chief executive officer Zach Nelson said more local firms across a broad spectrum of industries are utilizing cloud computing to reduce cost and raise productivity amid the global economic slowdown.